46. A television according to Claim 41, wherein said screen comprises a first and a second display memory; and wherein said screen stores the index in said first display memory if the index comprises a single page, and stores a first page of the index in said first display memory and stores other pages of the index in said second display memory if the index comprises a plurality of pages.

47. A television according to Claim 37, wherein the teletext program is in accordance with the European Telecommunications Standard (ETS).

REMARKS

It is believed that all of the claims are patentable over the prior art. For better readability and the Examiner's convenience, the newly submitted claims differ from the translated counterpart claims which are being canceled. The newly submitted claims do not represent changes or amendments that narrow the claim scope for any reason related to the statutory requirements for patentability. Accordingly, after the Examiner completes a thorough examination and finds the claims patentable, a Notice of Allowance is respectfully requested in due course. Should the Examiner determine any minor informalities that need to be addressed, he is encouraged to contact the undersigned attorney at the telephone number below.
